

Print the complete address in plain black letters in the panel below, and your return address in the space provided. Use typewriter, dark ink, or pencil. Write plainly. Very small writing is not suitable.

No.
 <small>[CENSOR'S STAMP]</small>
Mr. Frederick C. Loops Bank of Commerce + Savings 7th & F Sts., N. W. Washington D. C. U. S. A.		<small>H. Frank W. Loops, 0466787 [Sender's name] 432nd Sqdn., 17th Bomb. Gp. [Sender's address] A.P.O. 520, Postmaster, N.Y.C. <small>[Date]</small></small>
Hiya Joe.
Still kicking! And in more ways than one! - But the other ways aren't doing me a bit of good, dare I say it. Got some more of your letters today - Infact got some from lots of people. You, Sister, Brothers, Lewis & Nancy Kirkpatrick and even one from the California crew! - I didn't know! Also one of the packages of the V-mail sister has sent, finally caught up to me. - Think it might be a good idea to start some headed this way about once a month - as I haven't been able to get a hold of any the regular way - in about 2 weeks. Then we can only get one or two sheets a week! Glad you got the checks (money orders). Now I'll destroy the stubs. - Guess maybe I'll still buy a car - had about decided to be satisfied with just a jeep - but, yesterday, I accidentally got to ride in a real car - one of the generals! - Now - I couldn't figure out what was wrong - kept bracing myself for the bumps I knew to be on the road, and we never stumbled. Then it came to me I remembered back long time ago - there were such things as springs on cars! - A good thing - I'm for it. - I think "springs" will be here to stay! - Especially when all these G.I. truck riders and jeep riders see them again! You should have been to our squadron's party last week! Talk about the band putting the band puts out? Ya ain't seen nothing. Boy. It was a whiz dabble - no less. I'll write about it to the folks but if you want the true story - see me privately next time I'm home! - Let's have 'em Joe
V--MAIL

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, NEW YORK, N.Y.